

THE KRATOS ADVANTAGE

Kratos Industries, located in Metro Denver, is a national-level OEM of Switchgear and Switchboards. As a leading OEM solutions provider, there are several arenas in which Kratos Industries shines especially bright.

SOLUTIONS MINDSET

Through innovation, service, and integrity Kratos maintains relentless focus and pride in being a top solutions provider in the industry. Whether it be OEM features or a value engineered power distribution solution, Kratos continually strives to improve its products, services and customer relationships beyond the transaction.

AUTOMATION

From fabrication equipment to Engineering software, Kratos builds automation with automation. Kratos Controls values high-quality engineering, utilizing EPLAN to integrate controls into the mechanical design, send comprehensive wiring instructions to the shop floor, and inform highly detailed QC packages. Innovation doesn't stop here. Through its precision sheet metal division, Kratos maintains an arsenal of copper processing machines, robotic welding, automated panel bender, and a fleet of press brakes and CNC/lasers.

SCALABILITY

Located in the Arvada, Colorado, Kratos has more than 200,000 sqft each of fabrication and assembly facilities located within one mile of each other. Kratos is vertically integrated and continues to expand capacity and manpower to serve the market. Kratos is poised to take on complex challenges with large volumes and a willingness to create capacity seldom found in the market.

INDUSTRY LEADERSHIP

Kratos Industries was established in 2020 and has quickly assembled a core of industry talent and leadership that has been respected in the industry for decades. The team is well-rounded, with subject matter experts in manufacturing power distribution equipment and all the supporting business needs to ensure Kratos always strives to deliver a World Class experience.

CODE ORANGE - Kratos' twenty-three guiding leadership principles are constructed to give a tangible set of tenets to let employees, hiring managers, Manufacturing Representatives, and Customers know what values are held in high regard. Code Orange principles are not just a set of thematic values, but a specific and practiced series inspired by the people and actions that drive Kratos culture.
